

Books Can Take You Places!

Summer Reading Kick-off Poem

School's out!
You're done!
You're finally through.
Now what are you going to do?
Are you going away to camp?
Going on a family vacation?
Visiting friends or relatives in a far away nation?

Wherever you go and whatever you do,
Why not take a great book with you?
In a car, on the plane, on a boat, or on a train,
Reading's a vacation for your brain.

At the beach or by the pool,
Reading a book is really cool.
In the mountains or by the lake,
Reading a book is no mistake.

In your cabin away at camp,
Don't read in the dark; use a flashlight or lamp.
To find a good place to read isn't very hard.
Why not sit in a tree in your own backyard?

By: Mrs. Konight